

1 Use case one: View a list of books.

Description: the user views the books in the book lists

Primary actor: user

Preconditions: user access the main page on the localhost:9090

Postconditions: the user should be able to view a list of books

Initiation: the user clicks on the book button to view the book list

Main Scenario:

- User access the localhost:9090 and click on the books button
- the library system should view the list of books

Secondary Scenario:

- User access the localhost:9090.
- The book list is empty (no book found).

2 Use Case Two: Delete a book.

Description: user should be able to delete a specific book.

Primary actor: user

Preconditions: user should view the books in the book list

Postconditions: the specified book should be removed

Initiation: user clicks on the “Title” or “Author” to access the details of the book

Main Scenario:

- User should be able to view the details of the book
- The user should be able to click on the remove(delete) button
- System removes the book from the list

Secondary Scenario:

- User tries to delete a specific book.
- The specified book is not in the list.